Can I use a fake company for the interview and configuration ?

▼ Details

No. For every student participating at the course, it is absolutely required to find a real implementation field which can be interviewed for the category configuration. An implementation field can be a company, a public administration, a not-for-profit organisation, or a subsidiary or department of a larger organisation.